NOTES AND ORDERS.

GPB—35,000—15-6-12

I. No 61

SUBJECT:- Assistance to the family of the late Mr.B.J.Kumarasami Naik.

Dewan's Orders:- " Secretary will kindly get the question investigated in personal consultation with the Members of Council, Financial Secretary and Myself." (Id) M.V. 9-10-1914.

Secretary's Note for Consultation.

At least four alternatives appear to exist for consideration, namely: the grant of (a) a State pension, (b) a compassionate allowance, (c) scholarships to the children and (d) a Special Pallegar pension for a limited period. Short notes on each of these are recorded below:-

2. (a) State Pension.

(i). In 1897, a State pension of Rs. 400 a month was sanctioned to the grandson of the late Dewan Rangacharl for the support of the family and for the education and upbringing of the grandchildren of Mr. Rangacharlu It was made tenable till the boy completed his 21st year

(ii).A pension of £200 per annum was sanctioned for a period of 4 years from October 1911 to the widow of the late Mr.Meir, I.G. of Educ

(File put up in another connection)

(iii) A pension of £50 per annum was also sanctioned to each of the two sons (till they attain 18 years of age) of the late Captain Dawes, Offg Chief Engineer

3. (b) Compassionate Allowance

A compassionate allowance of Rs.86-1-9 per mensem was sanctioned for a period of 18 months for the benefit of the family of the late Mr.D'Cruz who was Munsiff, Kolar Gold Fields. From the discussions in the file connected with this, it is seen that there are no rules or definite principles guiding the grant of scholarships, etc.,to descendants of deceased officers, but that each case has to be considered on its merits. The allowance of Rs.86-1-9 was arrived at in this case on a consideration of the amount of compassionate pension which Mr. D'Cruz would have been entitled to, if he had been invalidated at the time.

× pages 3 & 4, and 8 & 9 of Office Notes in the file -(Flagged O)

4. (c) Scholarships.

A scholarship of Rs.50 a month was sanctioned to each of the two younger sons (aged 16 and 13 years) of the late Mr. Tate of the Military Department, for a period of 3 years from 1911

File put up in another connection

5. (d) Pallegar Pension.

In 1810, Dewan Purnaiya granted

a pension of Rs.45-3-2 to Venkata-krishnaraj, one of the ancestors of the late Mr. B.J.Kumarasami Naik. On the death of the former, a pension of Rs.22-9-7 was continued to his brother Comarraj. This pension of Rs. 22-9-7 was enhanced to Rs. 63-8-10 by a series of general increases sanctioned, in respect of all Pallegar pensions, in the years 1860, 1864-5 and 1893. This pension of Rs.63-8-10 devolved on Mr. B.J.Kumarasami Naik in 1891.

Original grant	Rs.22-9-7.
Increased by 50% in 1860.	Rs.33-14-4.
Increased by 25% in 1864.	Rs.42-5-11.
Increased by 50% in 1893.	Rs.63-8-10.

(vide para 2 of G.O. dated 30.7.93)

The other half of the pension of Rs.45-3-2 enjoyed by Venkata-krishnaraj (referred to above) probably lapsed to Government.

It is not usual to enhance pallegar pensions on individual considerations though general increases have been, from time to time, sanctioned on the ground of the indigen circumstances of the Pallegar desce ants and the rise in the price of food stuffs. But there is nothing to preclude Government from grantin a special pallegar pension to an portant Pallegar family such as K Kumarasami Naik's for a limited r ber of years. The amount of such pension and the period of the gra will have to be fixed by Governme if the principle commends itself them.

General Remarks.

6. Article 241 of the Mysore Service Regulations deprecates grants of pension to families of deceased officers save "under ver extraordinary circumstances".

It is for Government to decide whether the present case falls within the exception to Article 241.

This Note was personally shown by me to the Financial Secretary who expressed the opinion that it would be inexpedient to depart from the provisions of Art 241 of the M. S. R and that it would be enough to arrange, if possible, to pay the bonus on Insurance in full to the widow

Dewan

The amount of bonus due is Rs 12451. Mr Kumaraswami Naick has not nominated anyone for receiving it. He has left a major son by the first wife and the second wife has also minor sons I understand. The major son is said to be defective in his understanding & to have no objection to the amount

Mr Ramaswami Naicker, I am informed, used to take only about 1/16 of the Valliyar Oosoor there being other shares.

It would be useful if some material details about the condition of the family could be ascertained. If this is considered inexpedient, a compassionate allowance roughly agreed on the footing of precedent may be thought of.

In any case, the grant of any assistance will lie entirely the rule, & it depends upon the grace of His Highness.

I submit the file to the Dewan for preliminary consideration being made to consult the members of Council personally as desired

OPINION OF THE COUNCIL.

A Special Pallegar Pension of Rs 50 per mensem may be sanctioned in favour of Mrs Kumaraswami Naik during her life time.

The regular Pallegar pension of the family may be registered in the name of the eldest son of Mr Kumarasami Naick after necessary enquiries about the shares of the pension.

Submitted to His Highness.

Paper under disposal.

These papers relate to an application from Mrs. B.J. Kumaraswami Naik, praying for some kind of assistance from Government on account of the sudden death of her husband Mr. Kumaraswami Naik.

2. On receipt of the telegram addressed to His Highness in the matter, I caused enquiries to be made with a view to ascertain the actual condition of the family. It is leanrt that Mr. Kumaraswami Naik has insured his life in the State Insurance Department and that a sum of Rs.12,451 is due on the policies held by him. The bungalow owned by him in Bangalore is however reported to be encumbered. A portion of the advance of Rs.4,800 granted to him by Government for the purchase of a motor car is still outstanding. The family, it is understood, is on the whole left in somewhat straitened circumstances.

Pages 425 of the Notes.

3. Mr. Kumaraswami Naik belonged to a respectable Pallegar family. In 1810, a pension of Rs.45-3-2 per mensem was granted by the State to one of his ancestors by name Venkatakrishnaraj and, on his death, only half the pension was continued to his brother, the other half lapsing to Government. This amount which, by a series of general increases sanctioned by Government from time to time, reached the sum of Rs.63-8-4, ultimately devolved on Mr. Kumaraswami Naik in 1891. If the other half of the pension had not ceased, the family would have been in receipt of a further pension of Rs.63-8-4.

4. Mr. Kumaraswami Naik was a loyal and enthusiastic officer of Government and died after a long and satisfactory service of nearly 30 years. On account of the peculiar circumstances of the family, the question of granting Government help to the family in some form was considered in Council. In the special circumstance of the case, the Council are of opinion that a Pallegar pension of Rs.50 per mensem as against the lapsed amour of pension previously enjoyed by the family, may be sanctioned in favour of Mrs. Kumaraswami Naik during her life time and that the regular Pallegar pension of the family may be registered in the name of the eldest son of Mr. Kumaraswami Naik after necessary enquiries about the sharers of the pension.

5. The Financial Secretary seems to be opposed to the grant of the pension but in the special circumstances of the case, I solicit His Highness' gracious sanction to the recommendation of the Council.
